

Seminar on Restraining Great Powers: Soft Balancing in World Politics

The speaker will explore the use of institutions to restrain the power and threatening behaviour of great powers from the Concert of Europe onwards and then exploring its relevance in the contemporary era in view of the rise of China and the resurgent of Russia.

Speaker:

Prof. T. V. Paul

(McGill University)

Discussant:

Mr. Peter van der Hoest

(National Graduate Institute for Policy
Studies:GRIPS)

DATE

2015/1/23

(FRI.)

14:40-16:10

VENUE

Research

Bldg.(Bus.Admin)

Medium

Conference Room

Presented by

国際公共政策

EP(IPPEP)

The seminar will be held in English. All students and staff members are invited.